Old Business

- Jolene Greve: City of Highland Heights has asked if we wanted to run the concession stand for the summer to raise money for the program. – Based on discussion from the February meeting, it is a great opportunity but a challenge to staff all summer.
- Jolene Greve: Bylaws – for ONLY the 2022-2023 school year should we amend the bylaws to allow, any board or committee chairperson that doesn't have a child in the band to serve 1 more year due to the pandemic.
 - Jolene will write up a proposed amendment, which can be presented at the next meeting.
 - In addition, discussed ways to get more parents involved and getting the elementary kids excited about band.
 - Maybe doing a social after a couple of the nights of band camp
- Stephanie: Establish an alumni membership – tabled until April
- Senior Night
 - Carnival $1500
 - East Coast Custard $3.75 / person – total estimate ~ $750-$1000
 - Barrio $2500 for a Saturday night
 - Shelly Blanchard made a motion to allocate $2,000 for Senior Band Night for East Coast Custard and other items. Seconded by Jolene Greve.

New Business

- Jeff asked Shelly if we would like to do concessions for Graduation on June 5th.
- Theresa
- Online Store

Adjourn

- Motion to adjourn: Shelly Blanchard, seconded by Diana Pistone
- Meeting adjourned at 9:05 p.m.
